PALAIS EVENTS

Palais Ferstel

Bella Italia right in Vienna: Palais Ferstel brings Italian charm into Austria's capital. Centrally located by the Freyung in Vienna's first district, this Italian palazzo invites you to celebrate or hold meetings amidst Venetian-Florentine trecento-style surroundings. At this homage to late romantic historicism, guests can look forward to opulent rooms, lavish chandeliers and a beautiful colonnade courtyard. Enjoy special moments in a unique setting!

Unlike most other Viennese "palais", this palazzo wasn't named after its owner but after its architect – and not until it was renovated in 1982. Originally, the building constructed by Heinrich von Ferstel was designed for use as Austria's National Bank and stock exchange.

Palais Daun-Kinsky

Palais Daun-Kinsky was named after the person who commissioned it: imperial field marshal Count Wirich Philipp Lorenz von Daun, Prince of Teano. He assigned famous master builder Lucas von Hildebrandt with the construction of the lavish baroque-style palace. In the years between 1713 and 1719, a stunning masterpiece was created with unusual stucco decorations and beautiful frescos.

To this day, Palais Daun-Kinsky is among Vienna's most elegant locations. The historic rooms have a sophisticated setting – especially for opulent festivities and magnificent parties. Wedding, baptism, birthday, festive tribute, award ceremony or gala: Events of all kinds become a truly special occasion in Vienna's old town right by the Freyung and with breathtaking views of the Schottenkirche.

Wiener Börsensäle

The Wiener Börsensäle on Ringstraße are an architectonic, neo-renaissance style gem. The former building of the Vienna stock exchange was built between 1873 and 1877 by Theophil von Hansen and Carl Thietz – with lots of marble, stucco and tall columns. The Wiener Börsensäle are the perfect setting for press conferences, presentations, cocktail receptions or concerts.

Where people used to trade stocks back in the day, guests now celebrate and hold conferences. Today the building is a famous attraction, and the Börsensäle can be rented for events of all kinds. In addition, on-site catering and the delicious Café-Central-Patisserie ensure exceptional moments of culinary joy.

Café Central

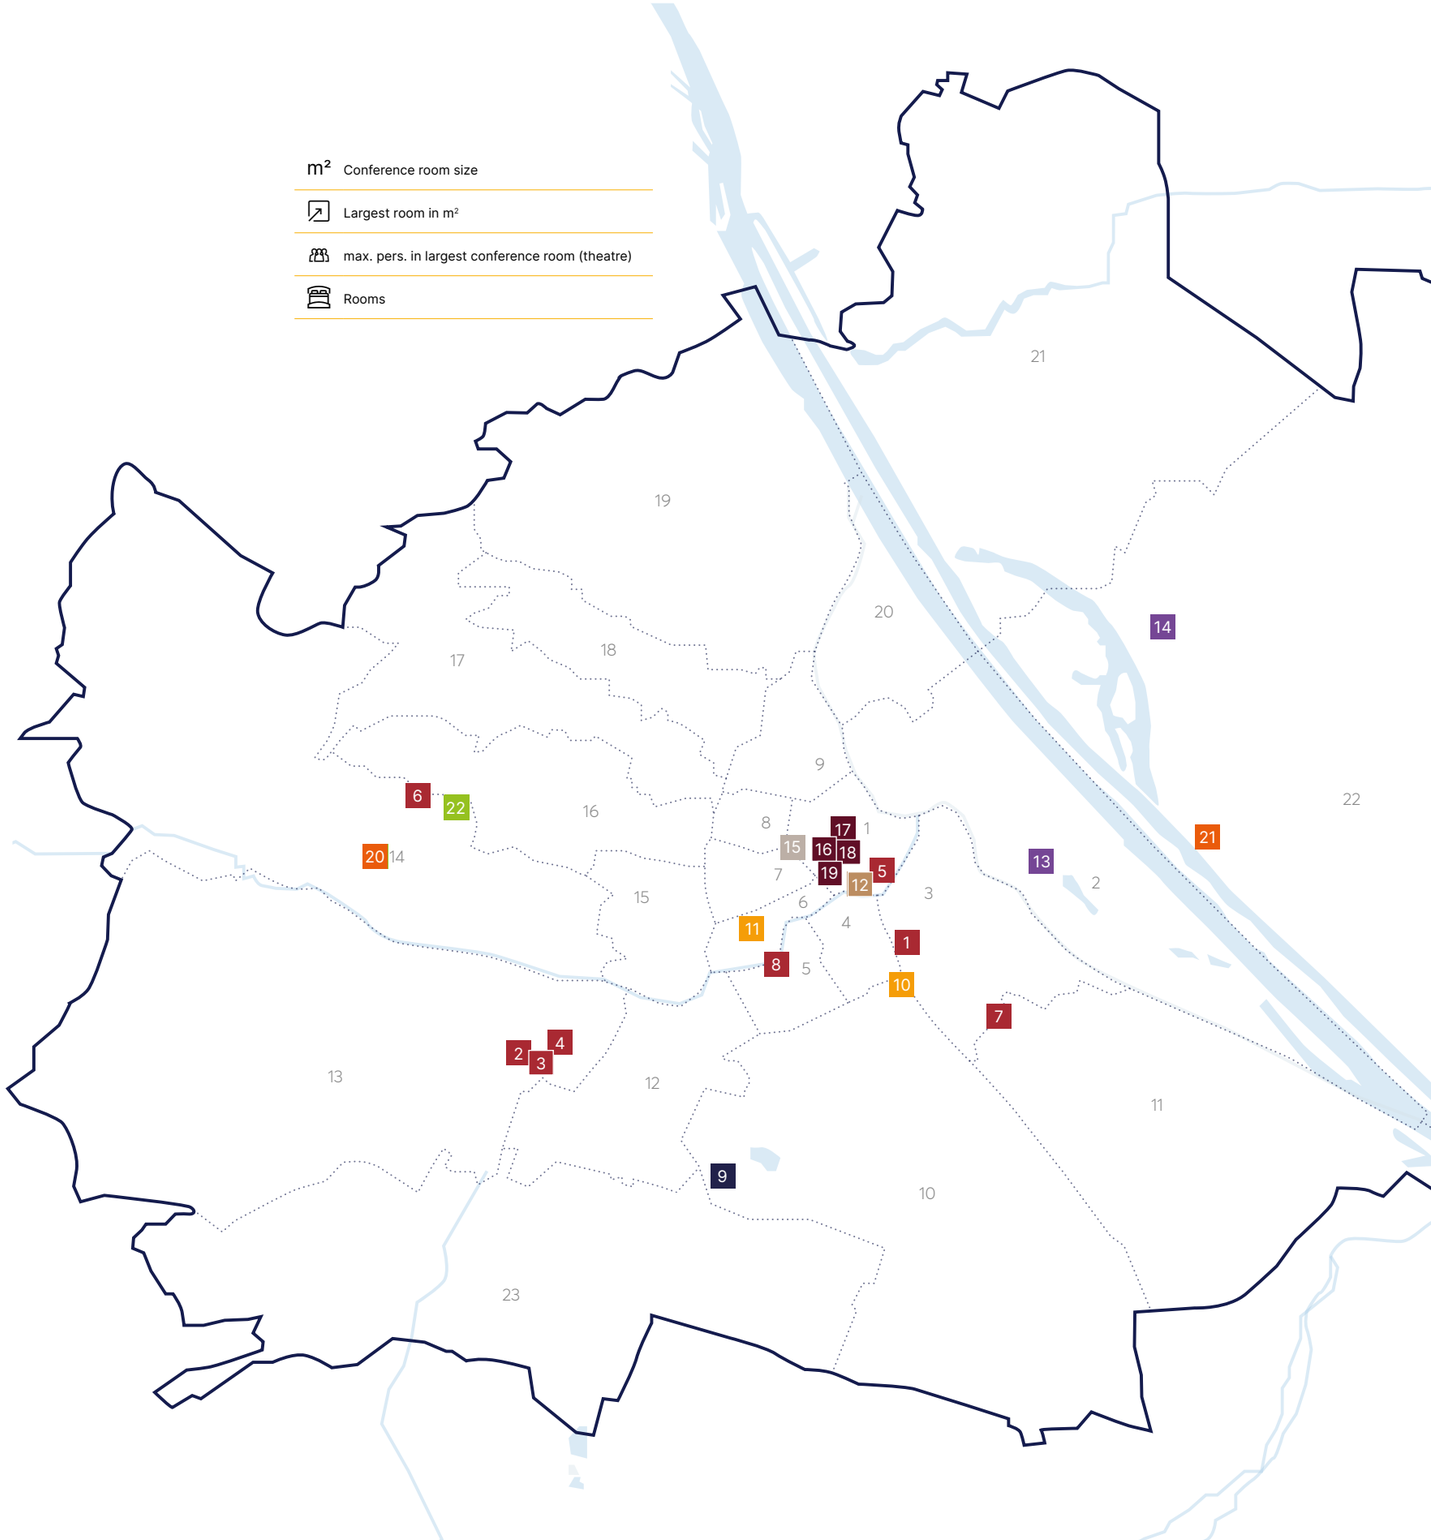

Palais Ferstel "houses" Café Central, which complements the diverse offers of Palais Events. In a historic setting, typical Viennese cuisine, traditional coffee specialities and sweet creations from the patisserie are served – where once famous poets and thinkers used to meet up for coffee and cake.

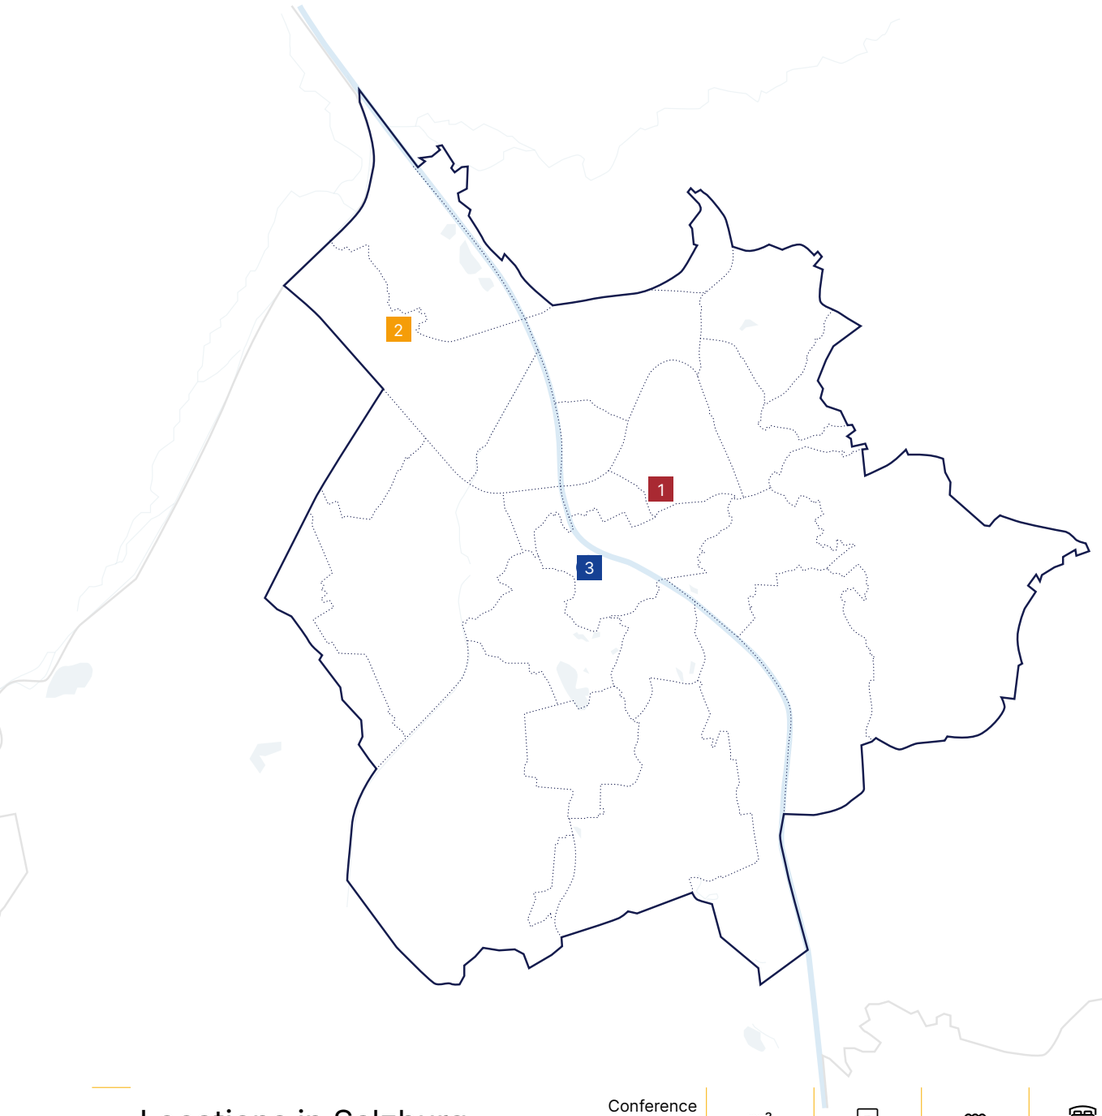

Since its opening in 1876, Café Central is among the most beautiful coffeehouses in Vienna – and to this day, it enchants visitors with its unique and cosy charm. The same is true for receptions in the Mediterranean colonnade courtyard as well as for press conferences.
