It is conveniently surrounded by some of the city's finest attractions, such as the Getreidegasse within the shopping district and the Mirabell Palace. Taking a stroll along the nearby Salzach River or soaking in the unique dome architecture of Collegiate Church are perfect ways to spend the afternoon in this stunning part of the country. Being listed as a UNESCO world cultural heritage the old town of Salzburg is very much worth a visit.

RESTAURANTS & BARS

The Radisson Blu Super Breakfast is an extensive buffet featuring a range of food items selected from the best of Continental, North European, and American cuisine.

Whether you are a fan of the Salzburger Festspiele or not, everyone is in their element at the Café Altstadt inside the Radisson Blu Hotel Altstadt. Settle in for afternoon cocktails, pre-dinner aperitifs or a late-evening nightcap.
